The Artist's Life,
A Roundtable Series:
The Artists' Reality Show:
Naked and Frayed

This 14th edition of the Artist's Life Series focuses on the artist's reality – the feelings evoked by putting work on display. Nearly all artists feel they've "checked their clothes at the door" when they show their art work.

The following questions will be discussed. What is that feeling like for you? What are the reasons most artists feel they are exposing themselves when they show their work? What is being exposed? How do you, as an artist, overcome those feelings to find the courage to be an artist and exhibit your work?

Long time Artists' League member, Mariann Kearsley, will act as coordinator of this roundtable discussion. The series was begun by Mariann in 2002.

Black Dog Café Exhibition, Viewer Discretion Advised

The exhibition, developed and coordinated by Marie Thompson, closed on Feb 28.

Two awards were given: to Hyun Duk Shin & to Jennifer Clinard. Each received a gift certificate from Black Dog Café.

Membership Drive: Co-Chairs
Barbara Psimas & Jeret Madei

The goal of the Drive is to increase the membership to 200 in 2016. At last count the membership was in the mid 180s. This is one of the highest counts the League has had. We believe in the League and want other artists to join us. The count is rolling as members renew and do not renew. We will do a definite count at the time of the Summer Annual, but we hope to increase our membership by 20 or more in the coming months.

The committee encourages all League Members to join us in this effort by inviting a potential member to a meeting.

From The War of Art by Steven Pressfield

"Never forget: This very moment, we can change our lives. There never was a moment, and never will be, when we are without the power to alter our destiny. This second, we can turn the table on Resistance.

This second, we can sit down and do our work."

– provided by Mariann Kearsley
