

ARTISTS' LEAGUE

FSU MUSEUM of FINE ARTS

Ceramics, pastels, watercolors, sculptures, photographs, woodcuts, acrylics, oils, fabric, glass...
Just a few artworks from the many talented members of the Artists' League.

Art from Surreal to Sublime...

Who are we anyway?

The Artists' League has been affiliated with Florida State University's Museum of Fine Arts for over 30 years and has a membership of approximately 175 artists. All aspects of fine arts and crafts are represented: graphics (drawing, printmaking, digital), painting (oil, acrylic and watercolor), photography (B&W and color), glass, sculpture, ceramics, fine furniture, wood as well as other disciplines.

Many award-winning artists in the League have shown their work in Florida and all across the United States. Currently the Artists' League Summer Annual is held in May/June and the Arts and Antiques Fair in December. Both show in FSU's Museum of Fine Arts.

Please visit the Artists' League website at www.artistsleaguefsu.org or mofa.fsu.edu/about/the-artists-league/ for more information.

Feel free to contact Dr. Viki Thompson Wylder, the liaison for the Artists' League at FSU, for further information. She can be reached at 850.284.3593. Artists in the website directory also welcome your inquiries about their work.

What's there to think about?

The Artists' League at the FSU/Museum of Fine Arts promotes regional artists and supports their personal growth by:

- creating exhibition opportunities
- offering workshops and seminars
- featuring speakers and offering networking opportunities for interested artists
- developing and maintaining a website to promote the organization and its artists
- offering several cash awards

The Artists' League is a fund-raising resource and community outreach for the Museum through the annual Arts and Antiques Fair in December.

The members of the Artists' League work closely with a Liaison from the Museum. Committees are created to address issues of interest for the members.

The Artists' League participates in community projects from time to time and encourages interaction with other local art organizations to promote the arts in Tallahassee.
