Exposé! Going Behind the Scenes of the Tallahassee International

- Two seasoned members of the FSU MoFA team will present at this meeting. Jean Young will speak about the processes and protocol used when artwork is submitted to the Tallahassee International exhibition. This exhibition is in its 32nd year. Originally called the Tallahassee National, it became an international competition with the advent of the world-wide internet. Exhibitors are chosen by jurors each year from several hundreds of entries from across the United States and as far afield as Israel and Japan. The First Award is $1000 and the Second Award is $500. Honorable Mentions are given at the jurors' discretion and a color catalogue is produced. Tallahassee artists, including League Member, Bill Humphries, have shown in the Tallahassee International in the past.

process. Jean Young is the Coordinator of the Tallahassee

Jean will show slides of entries, slides of those works which were accepted for the show in 2016, and will also give the “dos and don'ts” of the application

International but she is also the Registrar of MoFA as well as the MoFA Designer of catalogues and other printed material..

Wayne Vonada, the MoFA Preparator, will speak about the decisions made during the lay-out of the exhibition (or any exhibition).

Quotation from the War of Art
By Steven Pressfield

I'm keenly aware of the Principle of Priority, which states (a) you must know the difference between what is urgent and what is important, and (b) you must do what's important first.

What's important is the work. That's the game I have to suit up for. That's the field on which I have to leave everything I've got.

Do I really believe that my work is crucial to the planet's survival? Of course not. But it's ... important to me....”
