Annual Planning Session

● At this meeting upcoming programs and speakers will be announced. The League will review its successes from the previous year and set its priorities for the year to come. The input of all members is important! Chairs will select those meetings which they will lead during the 2016-17 season (or for which they will take minutes). Chairs may be assigned meetings if they are not present.

Coordinator:

Viki Thompson Wylder

● Viki Thompson Wylder is the Liaison from the Museum to the League. She provides information about Museum policy, attends/participates in League functions, and sits on the Speakers' and Membership Committees. At this yearly planning session, she coordinates discussion as well as the process for selecting League projects for the upcoming year.

For some changes to the Arts & Antiques Fair: see the attached letter from Allys Palladino-Craig, FSU MoFA Director, and changes in red panned (to highlight them) to the 2017 A&A Call for Entries.

A&A applications for the Fair are due at the October 3 meeting. Applications must be hand-delivered or mailed to the Museum to arrive that day (Tues, Oct. 3). Questions about the A&A Fair? Call Viki D. Thompson Wylder (contact info above) or Mary Liz Moody (contact info on back of flyer).

Quotation from the War of Art
By Steven Pressfield

The Bhagavad-Gita tells us we have a right only to our labor, not to the fruits of our labor. ...The professional loves her work. She is invested in it wholeheartedly. But she does not forget that the work is not her. Her artistic self contains many works and many performances. Already the next is percolating inside her. The next will be better, and the one after that better still. The professional self-validates. She is tough-minded. In the face of indifference or adulation, she assesses her stuff coldly and objectively. Where it fell short, she'll improve it. Where it triumphed, she'll make it better still. She'll work harder. She'll be back tomorrow."
